Dear Mike,

This quote identifies the batch of new computers scheduled to be retired, recycled and replaced as part of the 2026 Spring PC Replacement Project.

During our review, we identified three unused (not listed in the quote) spare WPD desktops, along with three additional desktops of the same model currently available in our in-house inventory. The pricing reflected in this quote has been adjusted accordingly to account for the use of this existing equipment.

Kindly review and return a signed copy of this quote to AIE at your earliest convenience. Please let us know if you have any questions.

General Pricing & Availability Disclosure

Product pricing, and availability are subject to change at any time prior to shipment or fulfillment of orders due to factors outside of AIE's control. These factors may include vendor pricing adjustments, market conditions, supply chain constraints, transportation costs, tariffs, and product availability.

Should any changes occur, AIE will promptly communicate any material changes and work with clients to address them accordingly. Quotes are for informational purposes only and do not constitute a binding agreement or guarantee of pricing until order fulfillment.
