It is agreed that you will provide the following presentation:

Good Old Neon

Freeman presents a lively and colorful talk featuring his neon sign photography taken throughout Chicagoland, showcasing familiar icons and quirky remnants from a time when brightly-lit signs filled the urban landscape. He delves into the history, production and impact of these fast-disappearing symbols of big-city glamour and commerce, and shares his affection for gritty, offbeat and unusual neon signage still to be found throughout the region.
