Play-Well at Home: Jedi Adventures using LEGO®

Play-Well programs are going virtual! Begin your Jedi training from the comfort of your own home with the guidance of an experienced Play-Well instructor and simple pieces from your own LEGO® collection - all while connecting virtually with other young Jedi engineers! Explore engineering principles and learn new building techniques while constructing your favorite Star Wars ships, creatures, characters and more. Create projects with imagination and engineering to defeat the Empire, with a focus on open-ended builds that do not require special LEGO® pieces.

Short Description: Build your favorite Star Wars ships, charactes, and more at home with pieces from your own LEGO® collection! Learn new building techniques and explore engineering principles through open-ended builds that do not require special LEGO® pieces.

Play-Well at Home: Minecraft Adventures using LEGO®

Play-Well programs are going virtual! Bring Minecraft to life from the comfort of your own home with the guidance of an experienced Play-Well instructor and simple pieces from your own LEGO® collection - all while connecting virtually with other young Minecraft enthusiasts! Learn new building techniques and explore engineering principles while crafting your favorite Minecraft Biomes, Mobs, and more, all with a focus on open-ended builds that do not require special LEGO® pieces.
