CONTRACT ADDENDUM

- Addendum to clause 10: Inclement weather should not be considered a force majeure event. However, in good faith the Artist agrees that should weather become a threat to making the concert unsafe for performance, the Artist will make their best effort to find a mutually agreeable date with the Purchaser within the 2022 season on an open Sunday – Thursday evening to reschedule the rained out date. The Artist must be notified by 8:00 PM CST the day prior to the performance if the Purchaser intends to cancel the show due to predicted inclement weather. The Artist and the Purchaser will make their best efforts to find a mutually agreeable date to reschedule the performance. In the event that the Purchaser and the Artist are not able to find a mutually agreeable date to reschedule, the Artist shall be paid in full for the cancelled event immediately as they have obligations to their musicians who rely on this income for their livelihood. Additionally, in the event of inclement weather on the day of or during the performance, the Artist will do whatever is in their power to ensure that the performance can take place on that evening as long as it is deemed safe to do so, even if it results in delaying the performance time or changing the length of the set to accommodate the situation.
- Addendum to clause 14: The Artist is a cover band and performs the music of other Artists. The Artist is working under the assumption that the Buyer and/or the Performance Venue is current and compliant with any required organizations such as BMI, ASCAP and SESAC, known as Performance Rights Organizations (“PROs”). We have found this article to be helpful in determining what licenses a venue presenting live entertainment where cover material is played should maintain.
